

Professor Ernest Choy

Professor Ernest Choy is recognised for his sustained and influential contribution to improving the lives of people with fibromyalgia and chronic pain. Through internationally recognised research, leadership in developing patient-centred clinical guidelines, and long-standing collaboration with patient organisations, he has advanced understanding, diagnosis, and management of fibromyalgia, consistently championing multidisciplinary, evidence-based, and patient-focused care.

