

Professor Jane Quinlan

Dr Jane Quinlan is recognised for her outstanding leadership in inpatient pain management and opioid stewardship, and for her sustained commitment to improving patient care locally and nationally. Through clinical leadership, influential research, national education initiatives, and advocacy, she has shaped UK practice in acute pain and opioid-related harm reduction, consistently championing compassionate, evidence-based, and patient-centred approaches to pain care.

