PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

53

53.1 No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting of the Society unless a quorum is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business. Fifty persons being Ordinary Members or Honorary Members or 10% of the Ordinary Members (whichever is the lesser), being persons present in person or by proxy (which shall exclude members of Council) entitled to vote upon the business to be transacted, shall be a quorum at any General Meeting.

53.2 A written Special Resolution must be passed by a 75% majority of the members present and voting including by proxy; a written Ordinary Resolution may be passed by a simple majority (more than 50%) of those members present and voting including by proxy.

54 If such a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of Members, shall be dissolved and in any other case shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place or to such other day not less than seven and not more than twenty eight days after the meeting and at the time and place as the Council may determine. If at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for holding the meeting the meeting shall be dissolved.

55 The President, if any, or in his absence, the Vice President or one of the other Officers present shall preside as the chairman at Annual General Meetings and Extraordinary General Meetings, but if neither the President nor any other Officer be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting and willing to act, the members of Council present shall elect one of their number to be chairman but if there is no member of Council present and willing to act, the Ordinary Members and Honorary Members present shall elect one of their number to be chairman.

56 The chairman of any General Meeting may, with the consent of a meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than business which might properly have been transacted at the meeting had adjournment not taken place. When a meeting is adjourned for fourteen days or more, at least seven clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place of the adjourned meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. Otherwise it shall not be necessary to give any such notice.

- 57 A resolution put to the vote of a General Meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless before, or on the declaration of the result of, the show of hands a poll or secret ballot is duly demanded. Subject to the provisions of the Companies Act, a poll or secret ballot may be demanded:
- 57.1 by the chairman of the meeting; or
- 57.2 by at least three Members having the right to vote at the meeting; or
- 57.3 by a Member or Members representing not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all the Members having the right to vote at the meeting.
- 58 Unless a poll or secret ballot is duly demanded a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.
- 59 The demand for a poll or a secret ballot may be withdrawn before the poll or the secret ballot is taken, but only with the consent of the chairman. The withdrawal of a demand for a poll or a secret ballot shall not invalidate the result of a show of hands declared before the demand for the poll or the secret ballot was made.
- 60 A poll or secret ballot shall be taken as the chairman directs and he may appoint scrutineers (who need not be Members) and fix a time and place for declaring the result of the poll or the secret ballot. The result of the poll or secret ballot shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll or secret ballot is demanded.
- 61 In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll or a secret ballot the chairman of the General Meeting shall be entitled to a casting vote in addition to any other vote he may have.

- 62 No poll or secret ballot shall be demanded on the election of a chairman of a meeting or on a question of adjournment. A poll or secret ballot demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time and place as the chairman directs not being more than thirty days after the poll or secret ballot is demanded. The demand for a poll or secret ballot shall not prevent continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll or secret ballot is demanded. If a poll or secret ballot is demanded before the declaration of the result of a show of hands and the demand is duly withdrawn, the meeting shall continue as if the demand had not been made.
- 63 No notice need be given of a poll or secret ballot not taken immediately if the time and place at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting at which it is demanded. In other cases at least seven clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll or secret ballot is to be taken.
- 64 A resolution in writing signed or approved by letter, telex or facsimile transmission by or on behalf of all the Members who would have been entitled to vote upon it if it had been proposed at a General Meeting shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a General Meeting duly convened and held. Any such resolution may consist of several documents in the like form each signed by or on behalf of one or more Members.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

- 65 On a show of hands every Ordinary Member and Honorary Member present in person or by proxy shall have one vote and on a poll or secret ballot every Ordinary Member and Honorary Member present in person or by proxy shall have one vote. No other Members shall be entitled to vote. The Council may by Regulations prescribe other methods of voting.
- 66 No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting shall be valid. Any objection made in due time shall be referred to the chairman whose decision shall be final and conclusive.
