

British Pain Society: North of England Study Day

Park Inn by Radisson York City Centre, North Street, York, YO1 6JF
17th September 2019

09.00-09.50	Registration
09.50-10.00	Welcome
10.00-10.40	Is the Future of Pain Services Really Bright? Dr Arun Bhaskar, President of The British Pain Society & Dr Christopher Barker, Lancashire Care NHS Foundation Trust
10.40-11.20	Abuse and Misuse Potential of Prescription Medications Professor Martin Underwood, University of Warwick
11.20-11.45	Coffee
11.45-12.30	Pharmacological Management of Neuropathic Pain: Is it effective? Professor Lesley A Colvin, University of Dundee
12.30-13.00	Discussion
13.00-14.00	Lunch
14.00-14.40	MDT Approach Drug Optimization & My Journey through Opioid Reduction : A Patient's Perspective Jane Shaw, James Cook University Hospital & Patient Speaker
14.40-15.20	Pain in Cancer Survivors & Neuromodulation in Cancer Survivors Dr Ashish Gulve, James Cook University Hospital
15.20-15.45	Coffee
15.45-16.15	Is Neuromodulation Alternative to Drugs? Dr Ganesan Baranidharan, President of the Neuromodulation Society of UK & Ireland
16.15-17.00	Setting up Community Pain Clinics & Integration in Secondary Care Dr Ganesan Baranidharan, President of the Neuromodulation Society of UK & Ireland
17.00	Meeting ends