Firstly you need to join this site - <https://knowledgehub.local.gov.uk/home>

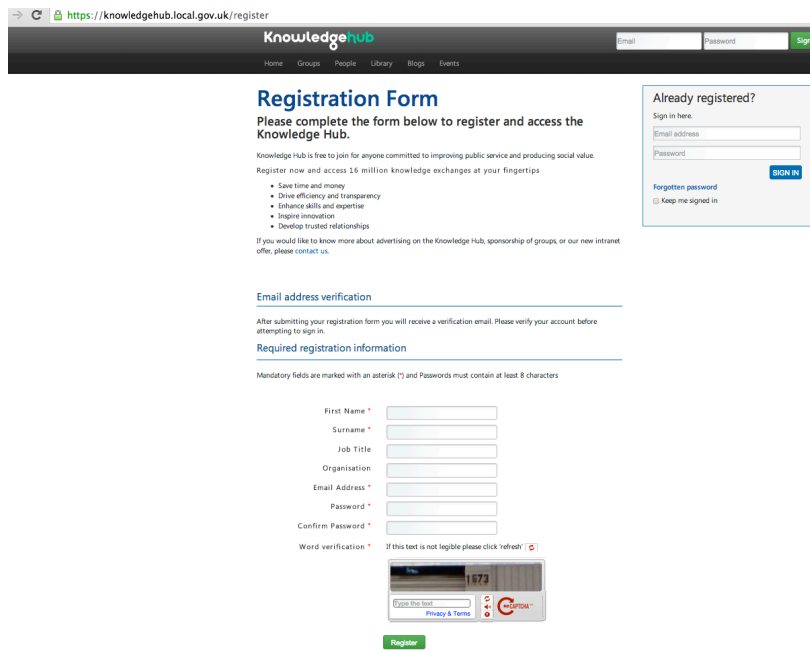

Click on the Orange box 'Or Register me now'

The screenshot shows the homepage of Knowledge Hub. At the top, there is a navigation bar with 'Home', 'Groups', 'People', 'Library', 'Blogs', and 'Events'. A search bar with 'Email' and 'Password' fields and a 'Sign in' button is also present. The main content area features a large heading 'Get connected and get involved!' followed by a row of colorful person icons. Below this, the text reads 'Knowledge Hub - where you go to work together' and describes the platform's purpose. A 'Sign in' form is visible on the right side. At the bottom, three orange boxes highlight key statistics: 'Connect with over 180,000 People >', 'Join in with over 830,000 Conversations >', and 'Access to over 46,000 Resources >'.

How can I use Knowledge Hub?

Complete the required fields and click 'Register'

The screenshot shows the 'Registration Form' on the Knowledge Hub website. The form is titled 'Registration Form' and includes a sub-heading 'Please complete the form below to register and access the Knowledge Hub.' It provides a brief overview of the platform and lists benefits such as saving time and money, driving efficiency, and enhancing skills. The form is divided into sections: 'Email address verification', 'Required registration information', and 'Word verification'. The 'Required registration information' section includes fields for First Name, Surname, Job Title, Organisation, Email Address, Password, and Confirm Password. The 'Word verification' section features a CAPTCHA image and a 'Register' button at the bottom.

An email will then be sent to you with a verification code to activate your account. Activate your account.

K Pain Education Community 3 members

Started: Dec 2014
Lead organisation: British Pain Society
Facilitators: Sue Jenkins

Welcome to the Pain Education Community that shares good practice and ideas for the delivery of pain education to patients and/or healthcare professionals (qualified or unqualified). It supports national and global partnerships, co-research and collaborative networks for innovative educators engaged in improving the quality of education. It will connect individuals, their organisations and the community itself, to problem-solve and provide endless access to expertise in pain education.
