

BRITISH PAIN SOCIETY SUMMER RETREAT

HOSTED BY THE PHILOSOPHY AND ETHICS SPECIAL INTEREST GROUP

At RYDAL HALL, CUMBRIA: arrive Sunday 25th afternoon and leave 28th June after lunch

ART AND PAIN: THE ROLE OF THE ARTS AND HUMANITIES

SUNDAY 25th June

16.00 Arrive, Tea

18.30 Dinner and housekeeping

MONDAY 26th June

08.15 Tai Chi in the gardens

08.45 Breakfast

09.30 Tim Johnson: Welcome and introduction

09.40: Deborah Padfield: Visual Artist and Lecturer in Arts and Health Humanities at St George's, University of London: 'Encountering Pain'

11.00 Coffee

11.20 Drawing exercise and workshop

12.30 Discussion

13.00 Lunch

14.00-16.00 Time off to relax or walk in the gardens and parkland. An opportunity to take photos to look at together later in the afternoon.

16.00 Tea

16.30 Deborah Padfield: reflections and discussion

17.15: Film: 'Pain Under the Microscope'

18.30 Dinner

TUESDAY 27th June

08.15 Tai Chi in the gardens

08.45 Breakfast

09.30 Dr Jens Foell: "In pain's presence: how clinicians behave with people in pain, a philosophical, psychological and sociological exploration"

10.30 Discussion

11.00 Coffee

11.30: Laura Rathbone: the Role of the Humanities: Exploring New and Classic Resources About Pain

12.30 Discussion

13.00 Lunch

14.00-16.00 Time to walk and explore the gardens and parkland, maybe swim in Rydal water

16.00 Tea

16.30: Dr Mike Hudspith: A Genesis of Pain

17.30 Discussion

18.30 Dinner

Wednesday 28th June

08.15 Tai Chi in the garden

08.45 Breakfast

09.30: Tim Atkinson 'Where Does it Hurt?'

10.30 Discussion

11.00 Coffee

11.30: Tim Johnson: The Role of Music

12.30 Discussion

13.00 Lunch